

Welcome Sustainability Kit

Welcome to the Politecnico di Milano! We are thrilled to have you with us!

At the Politecnico, we are deeply committed to promoting the culture of sustainable development in every aspect of our academic activities, from education to research, from people care to responsibility towards the community and the environment. We collaborate with society to achieve the Sustainable Development Goals on a global, national, and local level, making sustainability a core part of our mission. Our University is strongly dedicated to spreading and promoting sustainability, as outlined in our Strategic Sustainability Plan, which you can find on the dedicated page of the Polimi website.
